THE [Numb. 823.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, February 12, 1761.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

WESTMINSTER, November 18.

HIS Majeſty came this Day to the Houſe of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Henry Bellenden, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was nt with a Meſſage from his Majeſty to the Houſe Commons, commanding their Attendance in the ouſe of Peers. The Commons being come thier accordingly, his Majeſty was pleaſed to make e following moſt gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE juſt Concern, which I have felt in my own Breaſt, on the ſudden Death of the late ng, my Royal Grandfather, makes Me not ubt, but you muſt all have been deeply affected th ſo ſevere a Loſs. The preſent critical, and ficult Conjuncture, has made this Loſs the more nſible, as He was the great Support of that ſtem, by which alone the Liberties of Europe, d the Weight and Influence of theſe Kingdoms, be preſerved; and gave Life to the Meaſures, nducive to thoſe important Ends.

I need not tell you the Addition of Weight, hich immediately falls upon Me, in being called the Government of this Free and Powerful untry, at ſuch a Time, and under ſuch Circmſtances. My Conſolation is in the Uprightſs of my own Intentions, your faithful and united ſiſtance, and the Bleſſing of Heaven upon our nt Endeavours, which I devoutly implore.

Born and educated in this Country, I glory in e Name of Briton; and the particular Happineſs my Life will ever conſiſt in promoting the Welre of a People, whoſe Loyalty, and warm Affecn, to Me, I conſider, as the greateſt, and moſt rmanent Security of My Throne; and I doubt t but their Steadineſs in thoſe Principles, will ual, the Firmneſs of My invariable Reſolution adhere to and ſtrengthen, this excellent Conſtiion in Church, and State; and to maintain the leration inviolable. The Civil, and Religious ghts of My Loving Subjects, are equally dear Me with the moſt Valuable Prerogatives of y Crown; and, as the ſureſt Foundation of the hole, and the beſt Means to draw down the vine Favour on My Reign, it is My fixed Purſe to Countenance and Encourage the Practice True Religion and Virtue.

I reflect with Pleaſure, on the Succeſſes with ich the Britiſh Arms have been proſpered this Summer. The total Reduction of the vaſt ovince of Canada, with the City of Montreal, f the moſt Intereſting Conſequence; and muſt be heavy a Blow to my Enemies, as it is a Conqueſt rious to Us; The more Glorious, becauſe effted almoſt without Effuſion of Blood, and with t Humanity which makes an amiable Part of e Character of this Nation.

Our Advantages gained in the Eaſt-Indies have en ſignal, and muſt greatly diminiſh the Strength d Trade of France in thoſe Parts, as well as ocure the moſt ſolid Benefits to the Commerce d Wealth of My Subjects.

In Germany, where the whole French Force s been employed, the Combined Army, under e wiſe and able Conduct of My General, Prince rdinand of Brunſwick, has not only ſtopt in e Progreſs, but has gained Advantages over em, notwithſtanding their boaſted Superiority, d their not having hitherto come to a general gagement.

My good Brother and Ally, the King of Pruſſia, tho' ſurrounded with numerous Armies of Enemies, has, with a Magnanimity and Perſeverance, moſt beyond Example, not only withſtood their rious Attacks, but has obtained very conſiderae Victories over them.

Of theſe Events I ſhall ſay no more at this Time, becauſe the Nature of the War in thoſe Parts has kept the Campaign there ſtill depending.

As My Navy is the principal Article of our Natural Strength, it gives Me much Satisfaction to receive it, in ſuch good Condition; whilſt the Fleet of France is weakened to ſuch a Degree, that the ſmall Remains of it have continued blocked up by My Ships in their own Ports. At the ſame Time the French Trade is reduced to the loweſt Ebb: And with Joy of Heart I ſee the Commerce of My Kingdoms, that great Source of Our Riches, and fixed Object of My neverfailing Care and Protection, flouriſhing to an Extent, unknown in any former War.

The Valour and Intrepidity of My Officers and Forces, both at Sea and Land, have been diſtinguiſhed ſo much to the Glory of this Nation, that I ſhould be wanting in Juſtice to them, if I did not acknowledge it. This is a Merit which I ſhall conſtantly encourage and reward: And I take this Occaſion to declare, that the zealous and uſeful Service of the Militia in the preſent arduous Conjuncture, is very acceptable to Me.

In this State I have found Things, at My Acceſſion to the Throne of My Anceſtors: Happy in viewing the proſperous Part of it: Happier ſtill ſhould I have been, had I found My Kingdoms, whoſe true Intereſt I have entirely at Heart, in full Peace: But ſince the Ambition, injurious Encroachments, and dangerous Deſigns of my Enemies, rendered the War both juſt and neceſſary, and the generous Overture made laſt Winter, towards a Congreſs for Pacification, has not yet produced a ſuitable Return, I am determined, with your chearful and powerful Aſſiſtance, to proſecute this War with Vigour, in order to that deſirable Object, a ſafe and honourable Peace. For this Purpoſe, it is abſolutely incumbent upon Us, to be early prepared, and I rely upon your Zeal and hearty Concurrence, to ſupport the King of Pruſſia, and the Reſt of my Allies, and to make ample Proviſion for carrying on the War, as the only Means to bring Our Enemies to equitable Terms of Accommodation.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

The greateſt Uneaſineſs which I feel at this Time, is in conſidering the uncommon Burdens, neceſſarily brought upon My faithful Subjects. I deſire only ſuch Supplies as ſhall be requiſite to proſecute the War with Advantage; be adequate to the neceſſary Services; and that they may be provided for in the moſt ſure and effectual Manner, you may depend upon the faithful and punctual Application of what ſhall be granted. I have ordered the proper Eſtimates for the enſuing Year to be laid before you; and alſo an Account of the extraordinary Expences, which, from the Nature of the different and remote Operations, have been unavoidably incurred.

It is with peculiar Reluctance that I am obliged, at ſuch a Time, to mention any Thing which perſonally regards Myſelf: But as the Grant of the greateſt Part of the Civil Liſt of Revenues is now determined, I truſt in your Duty and Affection to Me, to make the proper Proviſion for ſupporting My Civil Government with Honour and Dignity. On my Part, you may be aſſured of a regular and becoming Œconomy.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Eyes of all Europe are upon you. From your Reſolutions the Proteſtant Intereſt hopes for Protection, as well as all Our Friends for the Preſervation of their Independency; and Our Enemies fear the final Diſappointment of their ambitious and deſtructive Views. Let theſe Hopes and Fears be confirmed and augmented by the Vigour, Unanimity and Diſpatch of your Proceedings.

In this Expectation I am the more encouraged by a pleaſing Circumſtance, which I look upon as one of the moſt auſpicious Omens of My Reign. That happy Extinction of Diviſions, and that Union and good Harmony which continue to prevail among my Subjects, afford Me the moſt agreeable Proſpect. The natural Diſpoſition and Wiſh of My Heart are, to cement and promote them; and I promiſe Myſelf that nothing will ariſe on your Part to interrupt or diſturb a Situation, ſo eſſential to the true and laſting Felicity of this Great People.

PARIS, October 17.

WE have received the News of the Loſs of Montreal and all Canada with Concern, but not with Aſtoniſhment. The Advices, true or falſe, that came ſome Time ago from Gaſpeſia, impoſed only on a few Perſons. It was well known that our Troops, and our brave Canadians, were in Want of every Thing; and we cannot but applaud them for having capitulated on the Conditions that have juſt been made public here.

Cologn, Nov. 4. The Court of Rome ſeems to have given univerſal Diſguſt, and his Holineſs, will probably find it impoſſible to pacify all the Powers, without leſſening the Dignity of the Apoſtolic See; the Breach is as wide as it well can be between the Church and the Crown of Portugal; and they have ſo far provoked the Genoeſe, that were it not for fear of giving Umbrage to more reſpectable Princes, it is thought the latter would have ſent 10,000 Men to ſettle their Difference at Rome; and the Mail brings Advice, that the Senate of Venice has renewed ſome old Pretenſions, which will inevitably bring on an open Rupture with the Court of Rome.

LONDON, November 13.

By a Ship from Hamburgh we have an Account, that Dreſden is actually inveſted.

There is Advice that a Turkiſh Man of War, of 74 Braſs Guns, lying at Cypruſs, and all the Crew, except 200, being on Shore, 100 Chriſtian Slaves, that were on board, roſe and killed all but 40 of the Infidels, and carried the Ship into Malta, the 6th of October.

Yeſterday an extraordinary Council was held at St. James's, to take into Conſideration the Expedition now ſitting out at Portſmouth; when it was Reſolved, That it ſhould be carried on with the utmoſt Vigour.

Extract of a Letter from Lyddiard Tregroſe in Wiltſhire, October 15.

" On Monday laſt was married here William Roſs, a young Fellow, Gardener to the Right Hon. Lord Bolingbroke, to Mrs. Mary Dorrell of Eighty-five, poſſeſſed of a Fortune of £. 4000.

Claſp'd in my monumental Arms
I yield thee up Four Thouſand Charms:
Each Charm, ſo current and ſo killing,
Will woo Four Thouſand Damſels willing."

'Tis ſaid that there is now in the Poſſeſſion of Mr. Collins, Butcher, in Bath, a ſurpriſing Hog, not two Years old, which meaſures from his Snout to his Tail nine Feet and a Half, is four Feet and an Inch high, ſix Feet ten Inches in Circumference, and weighs near nine hundred Pounds.

Yeſterday at Two o'Clock, ſome Merchants were forced to leave their uſual Standing-Places on the Royal-Exchange, occaſioned by a large Quantity of Pepper Duſt flying up through the Grates from the Pepper Cellars below, now occupied by the Eaſt-India Company; one of whoſe Directors being at that Time near the Place, was immediately acquainted with the Nuſance, and requeſted to uſe his Authority in preventing it for the future; to which he replied: Gentlemen, I will do any Thing in my Power to oblige you; but if you are not PEPPER-PROOF, I cannot help it.

November 18. On Sunday Night, and early this Morning, all the General Officers, the Colonels, and almoſt all the other Officers, were at the Right Hon. Mr. Pitt's, to take their Leave, and immediately to ſet out for Portſmouth, for the intended Expedition. And Yeſterday a great Number of led Horſes, and the Baggage of the Officers, ſet off for Portſmouth, and went over Weſtminſter Bridge, amidſt the loud Huzzas of the People, wiſhing them good Succeſs.

Dr. Duncan is appointed Phyſician to his Majeſty.

We hear that a late General has again been forbid coming to Court.

It is ſaid, that his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, and the Right Hon. the Earl of Bute, will ſoon ſet out for Germany, to execute a Commiſſion of Importance at the Court of Saxe Gotha.

We hear the following are the Staff-Officers deſigned by his Majeſty for the preſent Expedition, viz. Major Gen. Kingſley, Commander in Chief; Colonel Crauford, to act as Major-General, and to go ſecond in Command. The Honourable Colonel Keppel, to act as Major-General likewiſe. Lieutenant Colonels Horne and Reade, Brigadier Generals. Lieutenant Colonel Thomas Hall, Adjutant-General; and Lieutenant Colonel Draper, Quarter-Maſter-General.

The lateſt Letters from Saxony adviſe, that the Pruſſians had retaken Leipſick, and were going to Dreſden.

Nov. 15. A Spaniſh Veſſel is arrived at Portſmouth from Cadiz, by which, it is ſaid, there is an Account, that 700 of the Garriſon of Gibraltar had ſigned an Inſtrument to make themſelves Maſters of the Place; that they had already nailed up 30 Pieces of the Cannon; that they were to proceed to the murdering of the Governor, and all the Inhabitants that oppoſed them, ſack the Place, throw open the Gates, and go over to the Spaniards; that this Affair was diſcovered to the Governor by a common Soldier, who ſigned the Inſtrument with Reluctance, and by Force; that the Day before this Ship ſailed, 41 of the Mutineers were hanged; and that the Day ſhe ſailed, 46 more were hanged; ſo we hope by this Time the whole is quelled.

CHARLES-TOWN, South-Carolina, Nov. 29

Many Creek Indians were arrived at Savannah, pretending peaceable Diſpoſitions, but ſuſpected of treacherous Deſigns, and ſuſpecting ſuch Deſigns againſt them; that the Upper Creeks have an Epidemical Diſtemper among them, of which many die, and the Lower Ones have had a total Failure of their Crops; that ſeveral Engliſh Inhabitants have been murder'd about Broad-River and Pennington's Fort; that Col. Middleton's Troops were on the 19th of November encamped at Lion's Creek, 110 Miles from Charles-Town; that Fort Prince George was not then inveſted, but furniſh'd with ſome Proviſions by the Indians as uſual; that the Little Carpenter was ſaid to have met with Lentiniac, and to have broken a Stick over his Head; and that Major Thompſon with the Provincial Rangers, was ſetting out from Ninety-ſix, with 45 Cattle, a large drove of Hogs, and 15 Waggons loaded with Flour for Fort Prince-George.

December 6. That the Little Carpenter had deliver'd 10 of the Priſoners taken at Fort Loudoun to Col. Byrd at his Camp, and reported that 40 more were on their way thither. That Col. Byrd's Letter had a conſiderable Effect upon the Indians, engaged their Attention ſo that Major Thompſon threw Supplies into Fort Prince-George without Moleſtation, on the 15th October, and would have effectually anſwer'd all the Deſign of it, had it not been for the critical Arrival of Lentiniac; that the Indians however agreed to ſuſpend Hoſtilities till March, when they ſaid they would return to the Virginia Camp, provided they got back ſafe to their Nation, and the Army advanced no further: That the Aſſembly of Virginia, judging the Seaſon too far advanced to march their Troops into the Cherokee Country, had reſolved to diſband their new Levies; but at the ſame Time had voted a Sum for the completing and ſubſiſting the old Regiment till the firſt of April next, for the Protection of their own Frontiers, beyond which they are not to go. That Col. Byrd being then well acquainted with the Routs to, and Situation of the Cherokee Towns, propoſed forthwith to go to General Amherſt, to give his Excellency the fulleſt neceſſary Information, and ſollicit Succours from him. That ſeveral of the Indians who went with the Little Carpenter, had the Impudence to appear in the Clothes of the maſſacred Officers of Fort Loudoun Garriſon. That an Expreſs was arrived from Ninety-ſix with Advice, that Major Thompſon arrived there the 23d, with 3 Companies of the Provincial Rangers; that on the 26th, the whole 7 Companies aſſembled, and 3 of them with 7 Waggons, one loaded with Salt, the others with 9000 lb. of Flour, ſome Tools, and other Neceſſaries for repairing and ſtrengthening Fort Prince George, and 30 Suits of the old Regiment's Cloathing, for the Soldiers in Garriſon there; and on the 27th followed himſelf, with the remaining 4 Companies and 11 Volunteers, driving 70 head of fat Cattle, expecting to reach Fort Prince George by the 2d Inſt. That on the march to Ninety-ſix, ſeveral of the Rangers were attacked by the Indians, and two of them cruelly tortured to Death; and that there had been an Engagement between two ſmall Parties of the Rangers and the Indians, ſeveral were killed on both Sides, but the Indians were driven off. That the Remainder of the 4 Companies left by Colonel Montgomery, under the Command of Major Hamilton, were arrived in Town from the Congarees, where they had been encamped ever ſince the Beginning of Auguſt. That an Expreſs was arrived from Auguſta, with Advice that the Chief of the Upper Chicaſahs, with 43 of the Headmen and Warriors, had ſent the Governor a Repetition of their ſolemn Profeſſion of unalienable Attachment to the Britiſh Intereſt, and an offer to go any where in the Service of this Government, and act againſt any Enemy; and a Requeſt that his Honour would ſupply them with a ſufficient Stock of Ammunition to form a good Magazine in the Upper Nation. ——The Lieutenant Governor we hear, has accordingly ordered them to be immediately ſupplied with Powder and Ball, at Auguſta, and added very conſiderable Preſents. The ſame Expreſs brought Advice that a Part of the Chicaſahs, in the French Intereſt, were ſoon to attack the Chicaſahs, and the Creeks, in the Britiſh Intereſt.

December 16. That Advice was received that his Excellency General Amherſt had deſtin'd 600 Men to be taken from General Whitmore's Regiment, 200 from General Monckton's, and 400 more from other old Regiments, all choice Troops, ſeaſon'd to America, to aſſiſt in chaſtizing our perfidious Indian Enemies, beſides the 4 Companies under Major Hamilton, who ſeemed likely to remain, Orders being received to diſcharge the Tranſports that were left for them. That ſince the Departure of Governor Ellis, the Lieut. Governor Wright, has had 25 Headmen and 140 Creek Indians, who all made the ſtrongeſt Profeſſions of Friendſhip, and went away in very good Temper; the Upper Creeks were all very quiet on the 19th October. That the General Aſſembly of North-Carolina were diſſolved, and their Troops diſbanded, but the Soldiers had offer'd to enliſt in Col. Middleton's Regiment, and ſome of the Officers were ſet out to offer themſelves. The Aſſembly had preſented a Bill for continuing their Forces and augmenting them to 600, but had tack'd an Agent to it, which had obliged the Governor to refuſe his Aſſent, and occaſion'd their Diſſolution.

December 24. Major Thompſon with 470 Rangers, arrived at Fort Prince-George on the 3d of December, with 8000 lbs. Flour, ſome Cloathing, Salt, 38 Head of Cattle, the reſt having foundered or been loſt on the Way, having met with no Interruption. This Supply was very ſeaſonable, as the Proviſion in the Fort was near exhauſted; they have now Subſiſtence for 10 Weeks. The Rangers brought a plentiful Stock of Firewood into the Fort (which all the Officers and Men determined to defend to the laſt Extremity:) Major Thompſon ſtay'd at the Fort two Days, and then took off the military Stores laid up there, 40 Kegs and 18 Bags of Powder, with the Locks of 120 trading Guns, which were brought ſafe to Ninety-ſix on the 8th of December, and are to be delivered in Col. Middleton's Camp. The Major heard that a Party of Creeks went out to intercept him, but it is ſuppoſed the Diſpatch he made diſappointed them. The French are ſaid to have built a Fort within 8 Days march of Fort Loudoun.

Letters from Fort Prince-George, dated December 9, adviſe, That the Headmen of the Indians of the Middle Settlements have been there, and made the ſtrongeſt Profeſſions of Friendſhip. However, that the Sincerity of theſe Profeſſions are ſuſpected. Letters from Colonel Middleton's Camp at Congarees, adviſe, That the Troops are in perfect Health, and are upwards of 500 in Number, well Trained, and eager for the Service. A Meſſage has been received from the Cherokees, that they are determined to revenge the Death of their Countrymen, who had been killed by the Creeks and Chicaſahs, upon the Chicaſahs of Newwindſor, and the white People of Auguſta: Upon which, we hear, Governor Wright has ordered a Reinforcement of Georgia Rangers from Fort Argyle to Auguſta, where there were 30 of [illegible] Corps before.

The laſt Letters from Georgia inform us, [illegible] they are in great Expectations that Governor [illegible] will intercede with General Amherſt, that [illegible] Troops which may be ſent for their Protec[illegible] may be provided with Quarters, &c. at the [illegible] pence of the Crown, the Province being [illegible] unable to ſupport ſuch a Burden. Baltimore County, January 27, 1761.

WHEREAS Messrs. Jacob Giles and William Young, have publicly required all Persons indebted to Mr. Joseph Smith, late at Onion's Iron- Works, to make immediate Payment, and those who have any Demands against him, to give in the same to them; the Subscriber would be glad to be pub- licly informed by the said Gentlemen, if by the Expression of give in the same to them, they would be understood to mean, that they will adjust and pay off all the lawful Debts of the said Smith delivered in to them, as the said Smith is truly in- debted to the Subscriber, in the full Sum of Nine Hundred Pounds Currency and upwards, which the Subscriber's Answer, filed with his Account, in the Honourable Court of Chancery, to the said Smith's Bill of Complaint, will fully evince and make appear: Should this be the Meaning of the advertising Gentlemen, as they seem inclinable to intimate, under the Ambiguity of their Public Notice, their immediate Payment of what the said Smith owes to the Subscriber, would be very ac- ceptable to him: But if the mere Reception of Demands against the said Smith, be all that his Creditors are to expect for their Trouble in giving in the same to the above named Gentlemen, they would act but candidly, in the Opinion of the Subscriber, wou'd they be pleased to signify as much in the next Gazette; the Subscriber being one of those Sort of Creditors, who cannot com- prehend that the bare giving in of Demands against a Debtor, can in Justice or Equity, amount to a Satisfaction and Discharge of the same.
